VIC BREW

ACTOR / PRODUCER / GLOBAL STORYTELLER

LOS ANGELES, CA

PROFILE

A STORY WITH RANGE.

Vic Brew is a Los Angeles-based actor, producer, and global storyteller raised in Ghana.

After moving to the United States as a child, Brew found confidence and community through sports and theatre. He competed in NCAA Division I Track and Field, earned degrees in economics, entrepreneurial management, and data science, then built a career in technology and contributed to GitLab during its growth and public offering. That experience sharpened the business discipline he now brings to entertainment.

On screen, Brew has appeared in BET's The Family Business, FX/Hulu's Dave, and more than ten Dhar Mann productions. As a producer, his work includes NoHo: A North Hollywood Story, Retreat of the Heart, North of Hollywood, and Lost With You. He has traveled to more than 35 countries and draws from global cultures to create visually distinctive stories that connect people, challenge assumptions, and expand perspective.

Beyond entertainment, Brew co-founded a family-led nonprofit in Ghana focused on community development and infrastructure.

CREATIVE DIRECTION

STORIES THAT SHIFT PERSPECTIVE.

I create stories to change the way people see the world. I am drawn to diverse narratives from across cultures and to work that pairs meaning with a distinct visual identity. Color, composition, movement, and music are not finishing touches. They are part of the storytelling. I want each frame to reward a second look and every project to leave audiences feeling something, questioning something, or seeing someone differently.
